Call for Abstracts: International Summer School, 10–14 October 2011, Freising/Munich

Dear Dr. Brandstetter,

we are currently inviting applications for participation at the international summer school:

“Does Size Matter? Ethical, societal, legal and biological aspects of large animals as bio-medical models”

This is being organised jointly by the Europäische Akademie Bad Neuenahr-Ahrweiler and the Chair of Livestock Biotechnology of the Technische Universität München. The summer school will take place at the Wissenschaftszentrum Weihenstephan in Freising near Munich from 10–14 October 2011 (subject to final confirmation of funding by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research, BMBF).

Please find enclosed details of this call. We would appreciate if you could advertise this event and forward the information to potential applicants (graduates, Ph.D.-students, post-docs). Successful applicants will be reimbursed for travel and accomodation costs and are encouraged to contribute to a joint publication.

Applications including an abstract of max. 400 words and a CV should be sent by 14 April 2011 to: Dr. Kristin Hagen, Europäische Akademie GmbH, Wilhelmstr. 56, 53474 Bad Neuenahr-Ahrweiler, Germany; or via e-mail to: kristin.hagen@ea-aw.de. Information can also be found on the website www.large-animal-research-ethics.de. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any further questions.

Yours sincerely,

Priv.-Doz. Dr. med. Felix Thiele, M.Sc.
