

Information required for the application for recognition of the title "Expert for Laboratory Animal Science" GV-SOLAS

The figures in brackets refer to the 2021 guideline for recognition of the title

1. Name of application

2. Business address

3. University degree (1)

4. Date of joining GV-SOLAS (2)

5. Outline of professional development at recognized further training institutions

a) Details of laboratory animal science work with duration of employment (3)

b) where applicable details of experience gained with other animal species (3, 4)

6. Extraordinary further training

6.1 Outline of professional development

a) Further training institutions with details of laboratory animal science work and duration of employment

b) Participation in laboratory animal science conferences and courses (8)

6.2 Name and laboratory animal science qualification of the authorized trainer (7)

7. Work in another specialist field (1.)

Details of specialist field, training institution and duration of employment

8. Outline of laboratory animal science knowledge (5)

9. List of laboratory animal science publications, details of own participation where applicable (6)

10. Signatures of a) the applicant

b) the director of the recognized training institution or authorized trainer

11. Attachments required

- Copy of university degree certificate
- Statement of the authorized trainer (7)
- Qualification certificate of the authorized trainer
- References from training institutions
- Certificates confirming participation in continuing education events on laboratory animal science (8)
- 4 copies of the required publications